

Fargesia denudata

Fargesia denudata has very tiny, delicate leaves on light-green canes with a gentle arching habit. It is a fine specimen plant or focal plant and proving to be unusually heat tolerant. It has been observed to thrive in temperatures exceeding 100F without exhibiting damage.

Zone – 6a

Exposure – part shade

Ultimate Height – 12'

Spacing – 5-8' on center

Uses – specimen or containers

